

Spartan Survival Skills for Success! Week 1

Select precise vocabulary to improve verbal and written communication.
Avoid repetitive prepositions and redundant adverbs.

- Wrong "Be careful what you wish for, cuz you just might get it!"
- Right "Be careful what you wish, because you just might get it!"

- Wrong When you order the concert tickets, remember to add in the processing fee.
- Right When you order the concert tickets, remember to add the processing fee.

- Wrong Juan parked the car in between the mall and the bowling alley.
- Right Juan parked the car between the mall and the bowling alley.

- Wrong In between classes, Jana visited her counselor.
- Right Between classes, Jana visited her counselor.

- Wrong "The staid historical and the radical new blended in together in the colorful city."
- Right "The staid historical and the radical new blended together in the colorful city."

Spartan Survival Skills for Success! Week 2

- Incorrect "These memorable moments are few and far in between."
- Correct "These memorable moments are few and far between."

- Incorrect The book fell off of the cafeteria table during the tornado drill.
- Correct The book fell off the cafeteria table during the tornado drill.

- Incorrect Maria's house is off of Lincoln Street.
- Correct Maria's house is off Lincoln Street.

- Incorrect Renae requested time off from work to attend a concert.
- Correct Renae requested time off work to attend a concert.

- Incorrect The young boy trailed his burly father as he went off to work in the coal mines.
- Correct The young boy trailed his burly father as he went to work in the coal mines.

Spartan Survival Skills for Success! Week 3

- Wrong Local officials add up the damage from the violent wind storms.
- Right Local officials add the damage from the violent wind storms.

- Wrong Jason sets out on an adventure despite his lack of hiking and mountain climbing experiences.
- Right Jason attempts an adventure despite his lack of hiking and mountain climbing experiences.

- Wrong "Catch up with me later!" my sister hollered.
- Right "Catch me later!" my sister hollered.

- Wrong Sean and Juan face off against a pair of demon brothers in the doubles tennis match.
- Right Sean and Juan face a pair of demon brothers in the doubles tennis match.

- Wrong Charlie Spartan signed up for the contest and won an iPod.
- Right Charlie Spartan signed for the contest and won an iPod.

Spartan Survival Skills for Success! Week 4

- Incorrect Ping, an orphaned Chinese slave, hides out in the mountains struggling for survival.
Correct Ping, an orphaned Chinese slave, hides in the mountains struggling for survival.
- Incorrect The technician repeated, "Click on the red arrow," while we were learning the new database features.
Correct The technician repeated, "Click the red arrow," while we were learning the new database features.
- Incorrect This story chronicles the experiences of a young boy, as he is raised up in part of a science experiment.
Correct This story chronicles the experiences of a young boy, as he is raised in part of a science experiment.
- Incorrect During group session, one member of the club will share out a field trip suggestion.
Correct During group session, one member of the club will share a field trip suggestion.
- Incorrect It's time to sign up your team for the fantasy football league.
Correct It's time to sign your team for the fantasy football league.

Spartan Survival Skills for Success! Week 5

- Wrong Since Rosa Parks refused to give up her seat to a white man, she impacted American history.
- Right Since Rosa Parks refused to give her seat to a white man, she impacted American history.
- Wrong Start the academic year off by making a commitment to your health and wellness.
- Right Start the academic year by making a commitment to your health and wellness.
- Wrong Continuing on from the argument, both Michael and Kayla face their classmates with their harsh actions.
- Right Continuing from the argument, both Michael and Kayla face their classmates with their harsh actions.
- Wrong Lacy is forced to pass the note on to someone to avoid detection by the teacher.
- Right Lacy is forced to pass the note to someone to avoid detection by the teacher.
- Wrong While their village is attacked, Naruto and Sakura are out on a mission to find the magical key and rescue the victims.
- Right While their village is attacked, Naruto and Sakura are on a mission to find the magical key and rescue the victims.

Spartan Survival Skills for Success! Week 6

- Incorrect The character George recounts the story of William "Blockade Billy" Blakely, who was called in to fill a spot for the New Jersey Titans.
- Correct The character George recounts the story of William "Blockade Billy" Blakely, who was called to fill a spot for the New Jersey Titans.
- Incorrect Diesel used his charms and brute strength to track down a rumored shipment of priceless artifacts that arrived in Boston's North Shore.
- Correct Diesel used his charms and brute strength to track a rumored shipment of priceless artifacts that arrived in Boston's North Shore.
- Incorrect Where do I know that actor from?
- Correct Where do I know that actor?
- Incorrect A database software company hired out its contracting due to the decline in federal funding.
- Correct A database software company hired its contracting due to the decline in federal funding.

- Incorrect Due to iTunes music downloads, the CD sales revenue declined down from $943 million in 2000 to $427.9 million in 2010 in America.
- Correct Due to iTunes music downloads, the CD sales revenue declined from $943 million in 2000 to $427.9 million in 2010 in America.

Spartan Survival Skills for Success! Week 7

Select precise vocabulary to improve verbal and written communication.

Avoid repetitive prepositions and redundant adverbs.

AILMENT The cook served up the tasty BBQ before the football game.

CURE The cook served the tasty BBQ before the football game.

AILMENT Are Olypmic gold medals made out of solid gold metal?

CURE Are Olympic gold medals made of solid gold metal?

AILMENT The math tutor patiently assisted the student add up the numbers.

CURE The math tutor patiently assisted the student add the numbers.

AILMENT Adding in the dimensions of the closet almost doubled the square footage of the bedroom carpet.

CURE Adding the dimensions of the closet almost doubled the square footage of the bedroom carpet.

AILMENT Subtract out the insurance expense, and the vehicle payment is reasonable.

CURE Subtract the insurance expense, and the vehicle payment is reasonable.

Spartan Survival Skills for Success! Week 8

AILMENT Looking out over the Flint Hills, the pastel rainbow enhanced the rolling hills.

CURE Looking over the Flint Hills, the pastel rainbow enhanced the rolling hills.

AILMENT Calculators cancel out the need for long division.

CURE Calculators cancel the need for long division.

AILMENT "That's hard to say no to!"

CURE "It is hard to say no to that idea!"

AILMENT The captain divided up the players for the drill.

CURE The captain divided the players for the drill.

AILMENT Groups were made up of students with different learning styles.

CURE Groups were made of students with different learning styles.

Spartan Survival Skills for Success! Week 9

Select precise vocabulary to improve verbal and written communication.

Avoid repetitive prepositions and redundant adverbs. Avoid ending questions and sentences in prepositions.

- Wrong Where did you pass out this information at?
- Right Where did you pass this information?

- Wrong Your change back from $5 is $3.25. Thanks!
- Right Your change from $5 is $3.25. Thanks!

- Wrong Your score on yesterday's quiz was eight out of ten points.
- Right Your score on yesterday's quiz was eight of ten points.

- Incorrect Dave tees off on Sunday hoping to win the city golf tournament.
- Correct Dave tees off Sunday hoping to win the city golf tournament.

- Incorrect He made the trek to the strait then stared out at the sea.
- Correct He made the trek to the strait then stared at the sea.

Spartan Survival Skills for Success! Week 10

Some preposition/usage reminders including subject and nominative case may improve your language skills. Pronouns used as subjects or following linking verbs include: I, he, she, we, they, who. Pronouns used as objects following action verbs or prepositions include: me, him, her, us, them, whom, and the pronouns ending in -self or -selves.

- ☹ Wrong Please contact Clint or I about the homework assignment.
- ☺ Right Please contact Clint or me about the homework assignment.

- ☹ Wrong Give Juan and I the camera to film the concert.
- ☺ Right Give Juan and me the camera to film the concert.

- ☹ Wrong Her and her family spent Sunday at the Kansas City Zoo.
- ☺ Right She and her family spent Sunday at the Kansas City Zoo.

- ☹ Wrong My friends and me saw the movie last weekend.
- ☺ Right My friends and I saw the movie last weekend.

- ☹ Wrong Send Juan or I the package with the posters and tickets.
- ☺ Right Send Juan or me the package with the posters and tickets.

Spartan Survival Skills for Success! Week 11

Some preposition/usage reminders including subject and nominative case may improve your language skills. Pronouns used as subjects or following linking verbs include: I, he, she, we, they, who. Pronouns used as objects following action verbs or prepositions include: me, him, her, us, them, whom, and the pronouns ending in -self or -selves.

- ☹ Wrong Him and me watched the football game Saturday.
- ☺ Right He and I watched the football game Saturday.

- ☹ Wrong Me and her created colorful costumes for the play.
- ☺ Right She and I created colorful costumes for the play.

- ☹ Wrong Her and her family attended Art in the Park and devoured the delicious, spicy tacos.
- ☺ Right She and her family attended Art in the Park and devoured the delicious, spicy tacos.

- ☹ Wrong Jake gave Juanita and I a gift at the awards banquet.
- ☺ Right Jake gave Juanita and me a gift at the awards banquet.

- ☹ Wrong Avery easily won the race between her and I.
- ☺ Right Avery easily won the race between her and me.

Spartan Survival Skills for Success! Week 12

- ☹ Wrong Her and her husband watched the acrobats in amazement.
- ☺ Right She and her husband watched the acrobats in amazement.

- ☹ Wrong Us seniors won the pep assembly cheering competition again.
- ☺ Right We seniors won the pep assembly cheering competition again.

- ☹ Wrong Since the crowd was cheering loudly, the coach and us entered the field with excitement.
- ☺ Right Since the crowd was cheering loudly, the coach and we entered the field with excitement.

- ☹ Wrong My cousin and me are going to see the new Harry Potter movie.
- ☺ Right My cousin and I are going to see the new Harry Potter movie.

- ☹ Wrong The marching band dedicated a song to the graduates and I.
- ☺ Right The marching band dedicated a song to the graduates and me.

Spartan Survival Skills for Success! Week 13

Some preposition/usage reminders including subject and nominative case may improve your language skills. Pronouns used as subjects or following linking verbs include: I, he, she, we, they, who. Pronouns used as objects following action verbs or prepositions include: me, him, her, us, them, whom, and the pronouns ending in -self or -selves.

Incorrect ☹️ Them iPods are on sale next week.
Correct 😊 Those iPods are on sale next week.

Incorrect ☹️ The last time her and her sisters traveled to Lawrence the road was under construction.
Correct 😊 The last time she and her sisters traveled to Lawrence the road was under construction.

Incorrect ☹️ Of all the jeans on sale at the store, the ones on display are the most expensive.
Correct 😊 Of all the jeans on sale at the store, those on display are the most expensive.

Incorrect ☹️ Him and his friends created a book trailer for the class project.
Correct 😊 He and his friends created a book trailer for the class project.

Incorrect ☹️ My grandpa...he finally purchased a cell phone.
Correct 😊 My grandpa finally purchased a cell phone.

Spartan Survival Skills for Success! Week 14

Incorrect ☹️ Julia, Juan, Sean, and Nathan they all competed in last week's debate tournament.

Correct 😊 Julia, Juan, Sean, and Nathan all competed in last week's debate tournament.

Incorrect ☹️ Starting for the Spartans is number 5, Charlie Dunkit, he's known for his accurate three point shot.

Correct 😊 Starting for the Spartans is number 5, Charlie Dunkit, who is known for his accurate three point shot.

Incorrect ☹️ Comedian Ryan Redkin he was in town for a Granada Theatre fundraiser.
Correct 😊 Comedian Ryan Redkin was in town for a Granada Theatre fundraiser.

- Incorrect ☹️ Between us juniors, the class president has improved the prom fundraising promotion.
- Correct 😊 Among us juniors, the class president has improved the prom fundraising promotion.
- Incorrect ☹️ Between you and I, the weather was too cold for the hunting expedition.
- Correct 😊 Between you and me, the weather was too cold for the hunting expedition.

Spartan Survival Skills for Success! Week 15

Some preposition/usage reminders including subject and nominative case may improve your language skills. Pronouns used as subjects or following linking verbs include: I, he, she, we, they, who. Pronouns used as objects following action verbs or prepositions include: me, him, her, us, them, whom, and the pronouns ending in -self or -selves.

- Incorrect ☹️ The foul sent Cody Brown to the free throw line, he's shooting to break the tie game.
- Correct 😊 The foul sent Cody Brown to the free throw line who is shooting to break the tie game.
- Incorrect ☹️ The dancers, they performed at the tournament last weekend.
- Correct 😊 The dancers performed at the tournament last weekend.
- Incorrect ☹️ Jenni, she legally downloaded the free ebook from the Kansas Library Card.
- Correct 😊 Jenni legally downloaded the free ebook from the Kansas Library Card.
- Incorrect ☹️ Among the two singers, Audrey can reach a higher note.
- Correct 😊 Between the two singers, Audrey can reach a higher note.
- Incorrect ☹️ Me and my friend went bowling last night.
- Correct 😊 My friend and I went bowling last night

Spartan Survival Skills for Success! Week 16

Verbs provide action, have a tense, and are required in a complete sentence. These are some examples improving correct verb usage.

- Bring refers to movement toward the speaker. (bring, brought, have brought)
- Take refers to movement from the speaker. (take, took, have taken)
- Learn means "to gain knowledge or skill." (learn, learned, have learned)
- Teach means "to help someone learn." (teach, taught, have taught)

- Which Word? Danielle learned/taught her sister how to French-braid her hair.
Correct 😊 Danielle taught her sister how to French-braid her hair.
- Which Word? Yesterday the class taught/learned how to use the Excel spreadsheet software.
Correct 😊 Yesterday the class learned how to use the Excel spreadsheet software.
- Which word? The waiter brought/took us menus and glasses of water.
Correct 😊 The waiter brought us menus and glasses of water.
- Which word? The student teacher tried to learn/teach me the algebraic formula.
Correct 😊 The student teacher tried to teach me the algebraic formula.
- Which word? When you go to the gym, bring/take your tennis shoes.
Correct 😊 When you go to the gym, take your tennis shoes.

Spartan Survival Skills for Success! Week 17

Verbs provide action, have a tense, and are required in a complete sentence. These are some examples improving correct verb usage.

Let means to allow or to permit. (let, let, have let)

Leave means to go away. (leave, left, have left)

- Which Word? Please leave/let me help you carry the laptops.
Correct 😊 Please let me help you carry the laptops.
- Which Word? Will the guards leave/let you backstage after the concert?
Correct 😊 Will the guards let you backstage after the concert?
- Which Word? Who leaves/lets the house without locking the door?
Correct 😊 Who leaves the house without locking the door?
- Which Word? Juanita and Maria are leaving/letting their hair grow longer.
Correct 😊 Juanita and Maria are letting their hair grow longer.
- Which Word? My parents are leaving/letting my brother prepare dinner tonight.
Correct 😊 My parents are letting my brother prepare dinner tonight.

Spartan Survival Skills for Success! Week 18

Verbs provide action, have a tense, and are required in a complete sentence. These are some examples improving correct verb usage.

Lie means to rest in a flat position or to be in a certain place
lie, lying, lay, have lain

Lay means to place or to put and is typically followed by a noun (or a direct object) lay, laying, laid, have laid

Which Word? Several obstacles lay/laid in the path of the athlete's success.
Correct 😊 Several obstacles lay in the path of the athlete's success.

Which Word? My books have lain/laid on the desk for a week.
Correct 😊 My books have lain on the desk for a week.

Which Word? At last our missing pet was found laying/lying asleep in the sun.
Correct 😊 At last our missing pet was found lying asleep in the sun.

Which Word? The baby lays/lies safely constrained in the car seat napping.
Correct 😊 The baby lies safely constrained in the car seat napping.

Which Word? Unfortunately, the country's unemployment rate lies/lays at an ultimate high.
Correct 😊 Unfortunately, country's unemployment rate lies at an ultimate high.

Spartan Survival Skills for Success! Week 19

Verbs provide action, have a tense, and are required in a complete sentence. These are some examples improving correct verb usage.

Rise means "to go upward" and is followed by a noun called a direct object rise, rising, rose, have risen

Raise means "to lift" or "to make or force something go up" and is not followed by a noun or direct object.
raise, raising, raised, have raised

Which Word? The shy student contemplated raising/rising her hand.
Correct The shy student contemplated raising her hand.

Which Word? The unemployment figures have raised/risen this decade.
Correct The unemployment figures have risen this decade.

- Which Word? Eventually the curtain rose/raised, and the show began.
Correct Eventually the curtain rose, and the show began.
- Which Word? Long before the sun had raised/risen, our group convened.
Correct Long before the sun had risen, our group convened.
- Which Word? Juan encountered applause, when he raised/rose the question concerning the dance.
Correct Juan encountered applause, when he raised the question concerning the dance.

Spartan Survival Skills for Success! Week 20

Verbs provide action, have a tense, and are required in a complete sentence. These are some examples improving correct verb usage.

Sit means to take or occupy a seat or to rest

Sit, sitting, sat, have sat

Set means to place or to put and is followed by a noun or direct object.

Set, setting, set, have set

- Which Word? Maria SIT/SET down her book implying she completed the reading.
Correct 😊 Maria SET down her book implying she completed the reading.
- Which Word? Our class SET/SAT on the slope watching the smoke rise from the burning fields.
Correct 😊 Our class SAT on the slope watching the smoke rise from the burning fields.
- Which Word? Dane contemplated SITTING/SETTING through the entire movie due to its droll humor.
Correct 😊 Dane contemplated SITTING through the entire movie due to its droll humor.
- Which Word? Dad SET/SAT the infant in the car seat for ultimate safety.
Correct 😊 Dad SET the infant in the car seat for ultimate safety.
- Which Word? Juan SITTING/SETTING the table denotes lunch will be served soon.
Correct 😊 Juan SETTING the table denotes lunch will be served soon.

Spartan Survival Skills for Success! Week 21

Verbs provide action, have a tense, and are required in a complete sentence. These are some examples improving correct verb usage.

PAST means previous, history, ancient or beyond something

PASS - PASSED means surpass, exceed, leave behind or voted, accepted, agreed, approved

Which Word? Just PASSED/PAST the library stands a distinct monument.
Correct ☺ Just PAST the library stands a distinct monument.

Which Word? Haven't we PASSED/PAST the university student union?
Correct ☺ Haven't we PASSED the university student union?

Which Word? Juan was thrilled he PASSED/PAST the exam at 95 percent.
Correct ☺ Juan was thrilled he PASSED the exam at 95 percent.

Which Word? Walking my dog PAST/PASSED the zoo caused a detour in my path.
Correct ☺ Walking my dog PAST the zoo caused a detour in my path.

Which Word? "Leave your behind in the PASSED/PAST!"
Correct ☺ "Leave your behind in the PAST!"

Spartan Survival Skills for Success! Week 22

Verbs provide action, have a tense, and are required in a complete sentence. These are some examples improving correct verb usage. Adjectives modify nouns and enhance description. A noun is a person, place, thing, or idea.

LOSE , LOSING, LOST, HAVE LOST - Have something taken away, mislay something, fail to win, experience a reduction

LOOSE - ADJECTIVE - Not firmly attached or fixed in place, allowed to move freely without restraint

CHOOSE, CHOOSING, CHOSE, HAVE CHOSEN - To decide or select

CHOICE - NOUN - a selection, option, or preference

Which Word? Martin Luther King CHOOSE/CHOSE to write The Strength to Love.
Correct ☺ Martin Luther King CHOSE to write The Strength to Love.

Which Word? The wet field caused David to LOSE/LOOSE his footing.
Correct ☺ The wet field caused David to LOSE his footing.

Which Word? Juanita's LOSE/LOOSE shoelace implied she dressed quickly.
Correct ☺ Juanita's LOOSE shoelace implied she dressed quickly.

Which Word? Dane's CHOICE/CHOOSE to study improved the accuracy of his trigonometry assignment.

Correct 😊 Dane's CHOICE to study improved the accuracy of his trigonometry assignment.

Which Word? The LOSE/LOOSE bolt slipped to the garage floor with distinct clamor.

Correct 😊 The LOOSE bolt slipped to the garage floor with distinct clamor.

Spartan Survival Skills for Success! Week 23

Verbs provide action, have a tense, and are required in a complete sentence. Adjectives modify nouns and enhance description. A noun is a person, place, thing, or idea. Adverbs enhance meaning and modify an adjective or another adverb.

CONTINUAL - recurring frequently, happening regularly, almost without interruption, recurrent

CONTINUOUS - continuing without changing, stopping, or interruption, having no gaps or breaks

HEALTHY - in good physical or mental condition, fit, strong, or possessing health

HEALTHFUL - causing or improving health, beneficial to physical or mental condition

Which Word? There was a CONTINUAL/CONTINUOUS dripping of water from the broken faucet that periodically kept me awake last night.

Correct 😊 There was a CONTINUAL dripping of water from the broken faucet that periodically kept me awake last night.

Which Word? Sunlight shines on Emporia on a CONTINUAL/CONTINUOUS basis.

Correct 😊 Sunlight shines on Emporia on a CONTINUAL basis.

Which Word? I hope you heart pumps in a CONTINUAL/CONTINUOUS pattern.

Correct 😊 I hope you heart pumps in a CONTINUOUS pattern.

Which Word? The nurse attributes HEALTHY/HEALTHFUL foods for building strong bodies.

Correct 😊 The nurse attributes HEALTHFUL foods for building strong bodies.

Which Word? Juan is HEALTHY/HEALTHFUL due to his dedication to adequate nutrition and routine exercise.

Correct 😊 Juan is HEALTHY due to his dedication to adequate nutrition and routine exercise.

Spartan Survival Skills for Success! Week 24

Verbs provide action, have a tense, and are required in a complete sentence. Adjectives modify nouns and enhance description. A noun is a person, place, thing, or idea. Adverbs enhance meaning and modify an adjective or another adverb. Incorporate precise rather than general terminology.

GOOD - a high quality or standard, skilled, virtuous (an adjective that follows a linking verb and describes a noun)

WELL - something is satisfactory or performed in an efficient or desirable way, expertly, or properly completed (an adverb that follows an action verb and describes an adjective or another adverb)

Which Word? Grandpa delighted the children very GOOD/WELL with his intriguing folktales.

Correct 😊 Grandpa delighted the children very WELL with his intriguing folktales.

Which Word? The colorful kite flew GOOD/WELL in the breeze.

Correct 😊 The colorful kite flew WELL in the breeze.

Which Word? Jerry provided some GOOD/WELL advice about my computer.

Correct 😊 Jerry provided some GOOD advice about my computer.

Which Word? Grant is doing GOOD/WELL and recovering from the skiing accident.

Correct 😊 Grant is doing WELL and recovering from the skiing accident.

Which Word? As you GOOD/WELL know, my parents will not tolerate any laziness.

Correct 😊 As you WELL know, my parents will not tolerate any laziness.

Spartan Survival Skills for Success! Week 25

CITE - to quote or mention something or somebody as source

SIGHT - perception using the visual sense

SITE - a place of significant event or a location, or an online webpage

Which Word? Last summer my family viewed a wonderful CITE/ SIGHT/ SITE, the Seattle Space Needle.

Correct 😊 Last summer my family viewed a wonderful SITE, the Seattle Space Needle.

Which Word? The law CITES/ SIGHTS/ SITES, the license must be renewed within thirty days.

Correct 😊 The law CITES the license must be renewed within thirty days.

Which Word? According to the teacher, the writer must CITE/ SIGHT/ SITE the source of the statistic.

Correct 😊 According to the teacher, the writer must CITE the source of the statistic.

Which Word? Due to a change in my CITE/ SIGHT/ SITE, the optometrist changed my prescription.

Correct 😊 Due to a change in my SIGHT, the optometrist changed my prescription.

Which Word? Our class project is to create a web CITE/ SIGHT/ SITE including the research, images, charts, and sources.

Correct 😊 Our class project is to create a web SITE including the research, images, charts, and sources.

Spartan Survival Skills for Success! Week 26

Verbs provide action, have a tense, and are required in a complete sentence. Adjectives modify nouns and enhance description. A noun is a person, place, thing, or idea. Adverbs enhance meaning and modify an adjective or another adverb. Incorporate precise rather than general terminology.

RIGHT - accurate, proper, factual

RITE - ceremony, system procedures, custom

WRIGHT - proper noun, a person's name

WRITE - to compose, express something in words

Which Word? During the confirmation RIGHT/ RITE/ WRIGHT/ WRITE the minister provided blessings and words of wisdom.

Correct 😊 During the confirmation RITE the minister provided blessings and words of wisdom.

Which Word? The student's reluctance to RIGHT/ RITE/ WRIGHT/ WRITE the hypothesis resulted in a grade deduction.

Correct 😊 The student's reluctance to WRITE the hypothesis resulted in a grade deduction.

Which Word? After several attempts, the RIGHT/ RITE/ WRIGHT/ WRITE Brothers precisely flew in a powered aircraft.

Correct 😊 After several attempts, the WRIGHT Brothers precisely flew in a powered aircraft.

Which Word? Juan exclaimed, "I know the RIGHT/ RITE/ WRIGHT/ WRITE answer!"

Correct 😊 Juan exclaimed, "I know the RIGHT answer!"