

Kansas History: Territorial through Civil War Years, 1854–1865

State-House, LeCompton.

Nearly 200 historical documents including:

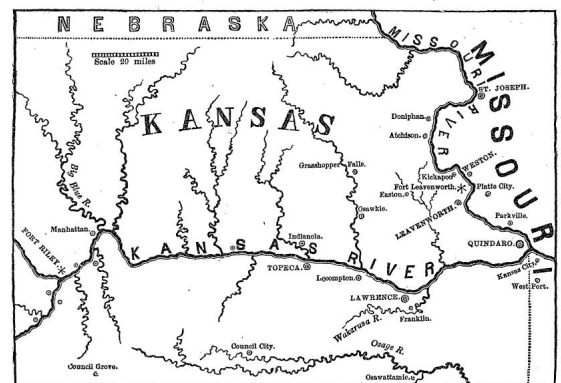

- personal narratives and memoirs,
- pamphlets and political speeches,
- sermons and songs,
- legal treatises and children's books.

The collection is divided into five categories:

- The Land;
- Life on the Frontier;
- Kansas as a Territory;
- Kansas as a State; and
- a tutorial section on how to use and cite primary documents.

Researchers of all ages will find the database easy to use as it is searchable by word, phrase, or year.

The database was developed by GaleCengage and given to the State Library as part of the State's Sesquicentennial Celebration.
